

SUPPORTING MEMBER

Join the Metal Roofing Alliance and showcase your company as a true industry leader and supplier of quality products to the metal roofing market.

Be An Industry Leader

As a Metal Roofing Alliance (MRA) supporting member, you have the opportunity to connect with an exclusive group of industry leaders all focused on the same goal - growing the market share for residential metal roofing. Your membership gains you access to MRA manufacturer, contractor, and distributor members through member communications. You will also establish your business as a valued voice in the metal roofing industry...specifically within your area of expertise.

Promote Your Business

Reach a wider audience through your member profile on MRA's website. With your customized profile you can feature your own website, social media accounts, contact information, logo, products and/ or services that support the residential roofing market. You can also submit your own promotions for inclusion in MRA communications... increasing your exposure, spreading the news, and improving your SEO.

Membership Dues:

FIRST YEAR = $1,000

THIRD YEAR & BEYOND = $3,000

SECOND YEAR = $2,000

Member dues are based on a calendar year and will be pro-rated appropriately. Dues can be paid annually or quarterly.*

To learn more about membership with the Metal Roofing Alliance (MRA), simply reach out to support@metalroofing.com. Whether you're looking for details about the benefits of membership, pricing options, or have specific questions, the MRA team is ready to assist.

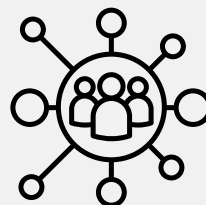

Your Benefits

Annual Market Research Data

Access To Promotional Materials & Resources

Outreach Opportunities